Church News

**Our Evening Bible Study will resume next Sunday, September 12. We will be studying the book of Ephesians. Many have described this book as the mountain top of New Testament truth. Like a mountain peak, this book offers us unparalleled views of God's grace and goodness in salvation. We will be held in awe of what grace actually is and how God has poured forth that grace in Christ. It is an honor and privilege to study this book together. I am very excited about opening this treasure chest together!

**The Nurses Station will not be reopening this fall unless there is a need. Please contact one of the nurses if at any time you want your blood pressure taken as we will be very willing to assist you.

**SHOE BOX COUNTDOWN EVENT: On Saturday, September 18 at 6:00 p.m., Greenville Alliance Church, 63 Conneaut Lake Road, Greenville, invites you to come and hear Operation Christmas Child's National Spokesperson, Lejla Allison, share her amazing testimony of how a shoe box changed her life in 1993 while growing up in war-torn Bosnia. "I truly felt blessed," Lejla said. "I knew that God had answered my prayers. I was so over-whelmed I started to cry. But these were not tears I was used to. This time they were tears of joy. This time I knew it was worthwhile to keep on living. I pray that every one of these boys and girls will know that God loves them the same way. I knew He loved me, because He gave His greatest gift, His only son."

**The Ladies Aid annual QUILT FAIR will be held here at Crossroads on Friday, October 8, from 9:00 a.m. until 3:00 p.m. Baked goods, homemade crafts, gift items, boxed cards, etc. will be on sale. Homemade beef-vegetable soup will be available for lunch along with sandwiches and homemade pies. Soup can also be bought by the quart for take-out. Any donations of craft items and baked goods will be greatly appreciated and can be dropped off at the church on Thursday, October 7. Please remember to bring your beautiful quilts to display.

**REMINDER: We still have quite a few Our Daily Bread booklets for September, October, November and the church newsletter for September left on the back table.
